CONCEPT SEVEN

THE TRUSTEES HAVE LEGAL RIGHTS WHILE THE RIGHTS OF CONFERENCE ARE TRADITIONAL.

"I reminded myself that AI-Anon is a set of principles with a spiritual base. I cannot grasp the written words through study, using my head and my limited comprehension. It is imperative that I use the spiritual principles and acknowledge that they highlight and weave through all the words."

—Paths to Recovery, page 291

In my head, this is how I see Concept Seven. The Trustees have the legal authority to protect Al-Anon Family Groups. The World Service Conference (WSC) of delegates (by group conscience) have traditional authority over the Trustees—which means that after their discussions and vote, the Trustees follow directions from the World Service Conference (delegates). The delegates adhere to the traditions, the concepts and the group conscience of the Al-Anon Family Groups. They are trusted servants and know that a Higher Power (as expressed through the groups) has ultimate authority.

In my family, when our children were under age, as parents we had a legal responsibility for their wellness. Sometimes in our dysfunctional families, the lines get blurry. We are controlling and want it our way. We are more concerned with what the outside world would think of our family, or worse yet, teach our children not to feel or tell what is going on in the family. We are as sick as our secrets.

As our children mature and become adults, we may continue to think we know what is best for them. We can also extend this kind of thinking to other relatives or friends. It's easy to do.

Thinking in Concept Seven, I'm not always someone's legal guardian; and I have no legal right over their lives. Just as the delegates use Tradition Two at the conference, I can trust that a loving Higher Power will take care of the people in my life. I am not their God. I have to trust that their Higher Power is in charge. Concept Seven helps me to remember to stay in my own lane.

"Experience shows that this balance of powers between the Trustees and the WSC is thoroughly workable. The balance can be maintained indefinitely, because the one is protected by tradition and the other by law."

Public Outreach Beacon

. . . Greetings to all from YOUR PO Team!

Sharing Our Experience, Strength & Hope!

Carry the message? You may ask HOW? The ones we feel can use this information don't seem to listen. Can we perhaps root for change, maybe even happiness for them? Clean up their chaos? We are told NO, as we are "a program of attraction not promotion." We can continue our own personal recovery and harbor vast amounts of positive determination to change the world and reach out with the hand of Al-Anon.

Where can we put this Al-Anon enthusiasm? Put it to work for Al-Anon! Remember Public Outreach? We are a committee that meets monthly to talk about recovery to those who will listen. Many individuals are in the throes of fear and agony that we personally have lived in for years. What could be more gratifying than carrying the Al-Anon message? That's exactly what Public Outreach does.

Our PO Committee needs you, your group and your sponsees to join us in finding events and places where we can share information and hopefully assist in addressing the issues of living with an alcoholic. If your group or district is sponsoring an Al-Anon event, the AlS office has program information available for you to share. Simply contact the AlS office (314-645-1572) and ask the staff for suggestions of literature for your event. Also, consider joining the PO Committee for their monthly ZOOM meeting — and you can help carry the Al-Anon message to others!

District 15 Picnic Wrap-up — It's All About Gratitude!

ETSI-FAMILY COU A PICNIC F000

District 15's 3rd annual "Gratitude in Recovery" picnic at Emmenegger Nature Park in Kirkwood was held on June 10th and overflowed with gratitude. The AA speaker (Mike P.) and the Al-Anon speaker (Marge P.) shared wonderful examples of how gratitude touches them in their recovery. And so many contributions from fellow members made the potluck picnic enjoyable for all! We thank those who provided delicious dishes and desserts for sharing; we thank those groups and individuals who donated their creative and generous baskets for the basket raffle; we thank those who volunteered their service to the picnic, i.e., planning, setup, cleanup, etc. Many hands make light work! And we thank our Higher Power for the beautiful picnic weather. All in all, it was a wonderful afternoon of fellowship filled with gratitude.

District 15 — our next Business Meeting is July 22, 2023. For more information please email Jenny K. at modist 15dr@gmail.com.

REMEMBERING AL-ANON SERVICE ARMS FOR MEMORIALS, BIRTHDAYS AND MORE

Recently a long-time Al-Anon member passed and I commemorated her life with a memorial contribution to the local AlS Office. Earlier this year, I had my 11 year anniversary as an Al-Anon member and celebrated it with another contribution to Al-Anon. And through the years, I occasionally send in a contribution to the District, Area, and World Service Office.

Many members, who are able, will contribute $1 or more as the Seventh Tradition basket is passed in a meeting. Yet, I wonder how many members think about the other opportunities to give back.

The 2022-2025 Al-Anon/Alateen Service Manual (P-24/27) under Financial Matters (pages 102-105) describes the spiritual principles of Al-Anon's self-support. Direct Contributions, the Birthday Plan, Memorial Contributions, Workplace Combined Giving Campaigns, Quarterly Appeal and Bequests are ways that individual members can support Al-Anon.

It is the generous contributions from members that allow Al-Anon to serve us all and provide outreach to those who have not found their way into an Al-Anon meeting yet.

I challenge each member to consider sending in $1 for each year they've been in Al-Anon to the AlS Office, District, Area and/or WSO! And, please don't forget to remember a loved one by making a memorial contribution to an Al-Anon service arm. —Anonymous

A Little Time for Myself (B-34)

Al-Anon's latest daily reader shares the personal experiences and many voices of the Al-Anon fellowship today, illustrating that Al-Anon is indeed for anyone affected by someone else's drinking.

From "Acting as if," "All-or-nothing thinking," "Anticipation," and "Avoidance" to "'Us versus them' mentality," "Vulnerability," "Welcoming others," and "Worthiness," an abundance of helpful ideas and perspectives appear in this book.

And it's also the first of our daily readers to include sharings about all 16 slogans, all Twelve Concepts of Service, and all Five General Warranties of the Conference, as well as all Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions. The reader is indexed, and is 384 pages long.

This wonderful new reader is NOW available at the AIS Office for a cost of $17.

Tools of Recovery—Service Work

"Albert Schweitzer said, I don't know what your destiny will be, but one thing I do know: the only ones among you who will be really happy are those who have sought and found how to serve."

—When I Got Busy, I Got Better" page 36-37

These two words (Service Work) can make people run for the hills. When I hear "I don't like service work it is too political." I believe that it comes from the fear of confrontation. Our past, the way we were raised, our crazy home life has installed no trust, no feelings, or "my way or the highway". As a young person it was frightening. We were not taught how to express ourselves in a healthy way. My house nobody could have any feeling and the only one expressed was angry by a parent and that fear of not knowing what will happen next.

Now in Al-Anon I began to feel better about myself. Working the steps and taking the suggestions of Al-Anon, I am able to navigate in this world with confidence and a understanding of others. My sponsor as told me that "You can't keep it unless you give it away." Which mean that I need to give back what was so freely given to me. If I use my tools of Al-Anon, service work can be a wonderful and rewarding experience. Thing I have experienced:

- 1. Life long friends.
- 2. Learning healthy ways to interact with people.
- 3. Seeing others' points of view.
- 4. Seeing my Higher Power work in others.
- 5. Learning about the Traditions and Concepts.
- 6. Patience, acceptance, and compassion for others.

The Al-Anon booklet "When I Got Busy, I Got Better", gives wonderful examples of how members got out of themselves. After each story there are thought provoking questions Examples: I ask myself: What abilities have I learned to trust in Al-Anon? page 30, I ask myself: Do I say yes to the program? Page 33, I ask myself: How have I made a difference today? Page 35, and I ask myself: How have I grown in service? Page 36.

I was drawn to service because I did have the time, I was ready to give back. Service is another tool in my toolbox of recovery. Yes, there can be strong personalities who are also involved in service work. If I remember that we are all here to help and pass along the principals of Al-Anon. Use my tools I learned in Al-Anon and work with my sponsor, service work can be very rewarding. I have many ideas, but I must be willing to do the work, if nobody else steps up. Suggesting ideas and not willing to do any of the work to me it is like giving advice or being a know it all. Which isn't the Al-Anon way. I try to lead with my heart and Higher Power. Soften my Ego and go into each situation thinking what is best for the greater good or the whole.

Ways to be of service:

Chair a meeting, Group Treasure, group secretary, make the coffee at your homegroup, set out Al-Anon literature, setup and clean up at a meeting, read the suggest welcome at the start of a meeting, speak at a meeting, welcome newcomers, become a sponsor, become a Intergroup Representative or Group Representative, be a good listener, write an article for Sincerely Al-Anon or Round Robin, attend a new meeting, attend an Area Assembly.

Please pray and ask your Higher Power if you are ready for service work.

"Part of the self-caring involves understanding that love is not lessened when given away. In fact, the more love we offer, the more love we will find within ourselves. Thus, whenever we truly give of ourselves, almost magically we find that there is more of our selves to give."

—A Grateful Member of Al-Anon

BLUEPRINT FOR PROGRESS Meeting is Celebrating 25 Years of Experience, Strength & Hope — with a Potluck!

What do you get when you have two determined women in recovery that are excited to share the experience, strength and hope they received through Al-Anon literature and meetings and want to start a new meeting centered around the Blueprint for Progress Workbook? You get the Blueprint for Progress Meeting that started meeting on Saturday mornings at 11 AM 25 years ago in St. Peters, Mo.

The Blueprint for Progress meeting was the first Al- Anon meeting I attended on a rainy, October morning almost four years ago (well, the first meeting the third time I tried Al-Anon). I thought it would be overwhelming to work through the Blueprint for Progress workbook because it is about the fourth step, and I didn't even know there were steps that I HAD to work through (spoiler alert-I wasn't the alcoholic). But what I noticed is that by showing up every week and going through the questions of the book one at a time, I learned about who I was; who I am; and who God meant me to be. I sit in this meeting almost every Saturday morning (it's my home group) with newcomers and with people who have been in recovery for a long time and I learn from both of them. It has been interesting to see what my answers were when I first started attending this meeting and the answers I give today after time on my recovery journey. The amazing thing is that through answering these questions I have finally figured out who I AM.

I'm grateful for the Blueprint meeting. Our group is excited to be celebrating 25 (and ½) years of working through the Blueprint for Progress Workbook and we would love for you to join us for a Potluck on Saturday, July 22 (see flyer for more information) as we celebrate where we have been and we look forward to sharing recovery with others. Margaret O., one of the determined women to get this meeting started, will be the speaker for the Potluck and along with sharing a little history about the meeting, she will also share her experience in the Al-Anon program.

Blueprint for Progress meets every Saturday mornings at 11 AM at Gateway Church, 250 Salt Lick Road, St. Peters, Mo 63376. HOWEVER, on Saturday, July 22-the Potluck will start at 10:30 AM- with the Speaker speaking at 11. We will supply coffee & juice, bring a dish to share and join us. We hope to see you there. Here is a link to the flyer with more information.

For the Newcomers. . . HOW WILL AL-ANON HELP ME?

Many who come to Al-Anon/Alateen are in despair, feeling hopeless, unable to believe that things can ever change.

We want our lives to be different, but nothing we have done has brought about change. We all come to Al-Anon because we want and need help.

In Al-Anon and Alateen, members share their own experience, strength, and hope with each other. You will meet others who share your feelings and frustrations, if not your exact situation. We come together to learn a better way of life, to find happiness whether the alcoholic is still drinking or not.
